

Justification—Test

True or False

- _____ 1. Justification is the gradual process whereby God makes you righteous.
- _____ 2. The history of Christianity has been greatly influenced by the doctrine of justification by faith.
- _____ 3. The Catholic Church teaches the correct view of justification by faith.
- _____ 4. The biblical opposite of justification is condemnation.
- _____ 5. Justification is a work of sanctification that God does inside the heart of a repenting sinner.
- _____ 6. Justification is a declarative act of God making the sinner just before God based solely on the merits and atonement of Jesus Christ.
- _____ 7. Justification is the imputation of Jesus Christ's righteousness not the impartation of His righteousness.
- _____ 8. Justification by faith is solely a New Testament teaching.
- _____ 9. Justification involves the negative aspect of removal of guilt and the positive aspect of the imputation of righteousness.
- _____ 10. Justification can't be earned; it must be freely given by God.
- _____ 11. Justification is based on your sanctified works of righteousness as you yield yourself to the work of the Holy Spirit.
- _____ 12. Propitiation means that God's wrath has been appeased by the blood of Jesus Christ.
- _____ 13. Justification is performed by God. He is the justifier.
- _____ 14. God justifies only the godly; not the ungodly.
- _____ 15. Although justification and sanctification are different works of God, whenever one is present the other is present, also.