

REGENERATION--TEST

True or False

- ___ 1. People in the Old Testament were not born again; they were just forgiven.
- ___ 2. The act of circumcision was used in the Old Testament to picture the removal of the reproach of sin's corruption.
- ___ 3. The New Testament has passages that describe the new birth as a circumcision of the heart.
- ___ 4. The New Testament never mentions the word circumcision.
- ___ 5. The Old Testament spoke of the work of God in giving his covenant people the blessing of a new spirit and new heart.
- ___ 6. Jesus reproved Nicodemus for not understanding about the need for the new birth.
- ___ 7. In the new birth God renews and regenerates the existing spirit of man in a work of creative transformation.
- ___ 8. The Holy Spirit of God comes to indwell the believer and unite with his spirit.
- ___ 9. John chapter three teaches that the Holy Spirit is sovereign in His power to regenerate the lost sinner.
- ___ 10. God uses the agency of the gospel message in the heart of the sinner as an incorruptible seed in His work of regenerating him.